

OPPORTUNITY BOUND

Stories of the Harvey Girls

Gladys Films and Women in Railroading are pleased to announce our collaboration on the film Opportunity Bound – Stories of the Harvey Girls. This feature length documentary, which recently received sponsorship from Orange County's PBS affiliate KOCE, is scheduled to air on PBS in 2008 to over a million national viewers.

Following the PBS broadcast, Opportunity Bound will continue to be screened at railroad museums, educational institutions, libraries, senior communities and theatres across the country.

We are currently seeking sponsors and funding for this important historical documentary, which tells the unique story of the 150,000 young women who against the social norms of the day, left home in the early 1920's, 30's and 40's to work as waitresses in "Harvey House Restaurants" along the Atchison, Topeka and Santa Fe Railroad.

It is of vital importance that this story is told now, as there are only a few remaining former Harvey Girls still alive today. This may be the last opportunity to capture their unique view of the events of the last century and their wisdom for the new millennium.
